RHS Eagle Repertory Theatre Hosts Summer Theatre Camps

The Richardson High School Eagle Repertory Theatre is sponsoring two summer theatre camps this summer.

The first camp, which is scheduled for June 8-11, is for elementary school children ages 6-12. It will run from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Students will learn about acting and theatre through fun games and projects. Activities include building a set, designing costumes, learning a musical number, and participating in a performance at the end of the week. The cost is $80.

The second camp is for two weeks from June 8-12 and June 15-18 and is open to children ages 11-15. It runs from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. This camp is designed for students looking for a more advanced theatre experience. Students will be cast, rehearse, design, tech, and produce their own play. Every company member is guaranteed an excellent experience both onstage and off. The play will be chosen based on the number of students who sign up. Students interested in only working behind stage during the play are welcome to apply as well. The cost is $200.

Both camps will be held at Richardson High School and the deadline to apply is June 1. More information and applications are available online at www.rhstheatre.org or contact Jessica Carey at 330-990-7482 or e-mail jessica.carey@risd.org.
